

Tupelo Automobile Museum - Tupelo, MS

Friday, January 8–Wednesday, June 30, 2010

Renowned and award-winning musician Marty Stuart has collected and documented an unparalleled collection of music memorabilia from a "who's who" of performers. This exhibit represents more than 40 years of the classic greats behind country, bluegrass, rock, and southern gospel music.

See priceless costumes, instruments, lyrics, and other outstanding pieces such as Elvis Presley's sweater, Patsy Cline's make-up case, Johnny Cash's "Man In Black" suit, and the hand-written lyrics to "Your Cheatin' Heart". This American collection illustrates the impact of fashion and music on popular culture and the exhibit tells a personal story of Marty Stuart.

Museum Hours: (Mar.-Oct.)Tuesday-Saturday, 10am-6pm, Sunday noon-5pm
(Nov.-Feb.)Tuesday-Saturday, 10am-5pm, Sunday noon-5pm
Closed Mondays, New Year's Day, Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas Day.

For more information about the exhibit, please visit sparkleandtwang.info or www.tupeloauto.com