

Things To See & Do

Tupelo Shopping Areas

Tupelo's parade of one-of-a-kind shops and stores winds its way across historic downtown, through an expansive regional mall and down the city's unique "Antique Trail."

This shopper's paradise adds up to one of the highest retail sales rankings in all of Mississippi. Tupelo attracts national and international travelers, all flocking to sample the diverse collection of outlet and specialty stores, antique gift items, pottery shops, unique bookstores, consignment shops and children's specialty stores.

The Mall at Barnes Crossing, located at the intersection of U.S. Highways 78 and 45, is one of the largest shopping venues in northeast Mississippi. It stands as big brother to several nearby shopping strips offering name-brand wares — everything from clothes and shoes to imports, toys and more.

In historic downtown Tupelo, dozens of family-owned businesses and restaurants are rooted to the spot, many of them serving the public in this location for more than 60 years.

Antique connoisseurs are also in luck in Tupelo. With the handy "Antique Trail" brochure drawn up by the Tupelo Antique Association, "antiquers" can conveniently map out their treasure hunts. For more information on shopping brochures, call the Tupelo Convention and Visitors Bureau at 800-533-0611, or come by our office located at 399 E. Main Street.
